Its attractions include the shafts and labyrinthine passageways, displays of historic salt-mining technology, an underground lake, and much more.

AUSCHWITZ CONCENTRATION CAMP

the scene of martyrdom of millions of people during World War II. Place, where the Nazis were carrying out their genocidal plan of exterminating the whole nations, mainly Jews, Poles and other people of Slavic origins.

SIGISMUND'S CHAPEL

built as a funerary chapel for the last members of the Jagiellonian Dynasty, it has been hailed by many art historians as "the most beautiful example of the Tuscan Renaissance north of the Alps"

SUKIENNICE - THE CLOTH HALL

said to be the first shopping mall in the world. Nowadays it functions as a market for tourists with all kinds of Polish crafts and souvenirs available there.

KAZIMIERZ DISTRICT

the centre of Jewish life in Cracow for over 500 years. Today it is Cracow's most exciting district – a vivid, bohemian neighbourhood packed with historical sites, atmospheric cafés and art galleries.

WAWEL CASTLE

the residence of our kings, placed on top of a hill is by far one of the most important buildings in Poland. A symbol of national pride, hope, self-rule, and fierce patriotism.
